

Position Description: Assistant to the Rector (full time)*

Where: Saint Barnabas Episcopal Church
954 Lake Avenue
Greenwich, CT 06831
Tel. 203 661-5526

Website: www.StBarnabasGreenwich.org

The primary responsibility of the clergy person we seek is to lead our Family Ministries activities while also sharing with the Rector in a large number of additional worship, parish life, and related responsibilities. Family Ministries includes church school, focused on our children and their parents, and facets of adult education which includes a variety of spiritually enriching activities and opportunities. Shared responsibilities include liturgy and worship planning, leadership, and evaluation of programs along with the Rector and our Director of Music. The parish also places a firm emphasis on a ministry of Mission & Outreach both through hands on local work and funding of other organizations. Communications continues to be an important topic for the parish with which the assistant to the Rector would also be engaged. In addition, the assistant clergy person will share in parish life and pastoral care within the parish and beyond in the greater Greenwich and southwestern Fairfield County area.

Interest and inquiries should be directed to: The Rev. Ted Pardoe, Rector
