

Old St. Andrew's Church in Bloomfield, Connecticut is excited to announce the search for our next Rector. This is a full time position.

Located northwest of Hartford, Connecticut, we are an active and engaged parish worshipping in a bucolic, meditative setting. We are an inclusive and welcoming community with a deep desire to connect with God everywhere and with our neighbors. Environmental stewardship is important to us, as is engaging with the world in interfaith and ecumenical work.

Please review our website at <http://www.oldstandrews.net>

Our parish profile is located at http://www.oldstandrews.net/?page_id=3451

After reviewing our profile, if you feel called to engage in mutual discernment with us, please follow the directions on the "How to Apply" section of the Parish Profile and submit your letter of interest, resume and OTM profile before November 30, 2016 to The Rev. Canon Lee Ann Tolzmann at latolzmann@episcopalct.org

We look forward to hearing from you!