Position:

Curate for young adult and family ministries – We seek a newly ordained priest with energy and vision, at home with Anglo-Catholic worship who is both theologically Orthodox and socially progressive. Must have capacity to engage and inspire young adults, and young families, and enjoy being around children.

Description:

- Outreach to young adults in their 20s and 30s through current established group called “Flipside,” primarily composed of young professionals, graduate students and faculty at USC.
- Create new ways of attracting young adults from both the emerging downtown and university communities.
- Direct established Compline program at 9:00 pm Sunday evenings reaching members of the congregation, university and wider diocesan young adults.
- Interface with Office of religious Life and other ministries at USC.
- Evangelical outreach to attract more young families with younger children – a new growing edge for St. John’s
- Create, coordinate and expand on small existing children’s ministry. While direct weekly ministry with children is not expected, equipping parents and teachers in Christian Formation of Children and a love and passion for this ministry are key.
- Share in pastoral care, liturgical leadership and preaching with the Deans and other clergy staff.
